Public utilities

An urban concept where infrastructure like housing, workplace, and shopping centres etc are built in the vicinity of each other. Housing experts believe that this culture needs to gain momentum across Metro cities, given the everyday challenges an employee comes across in order to get to work.

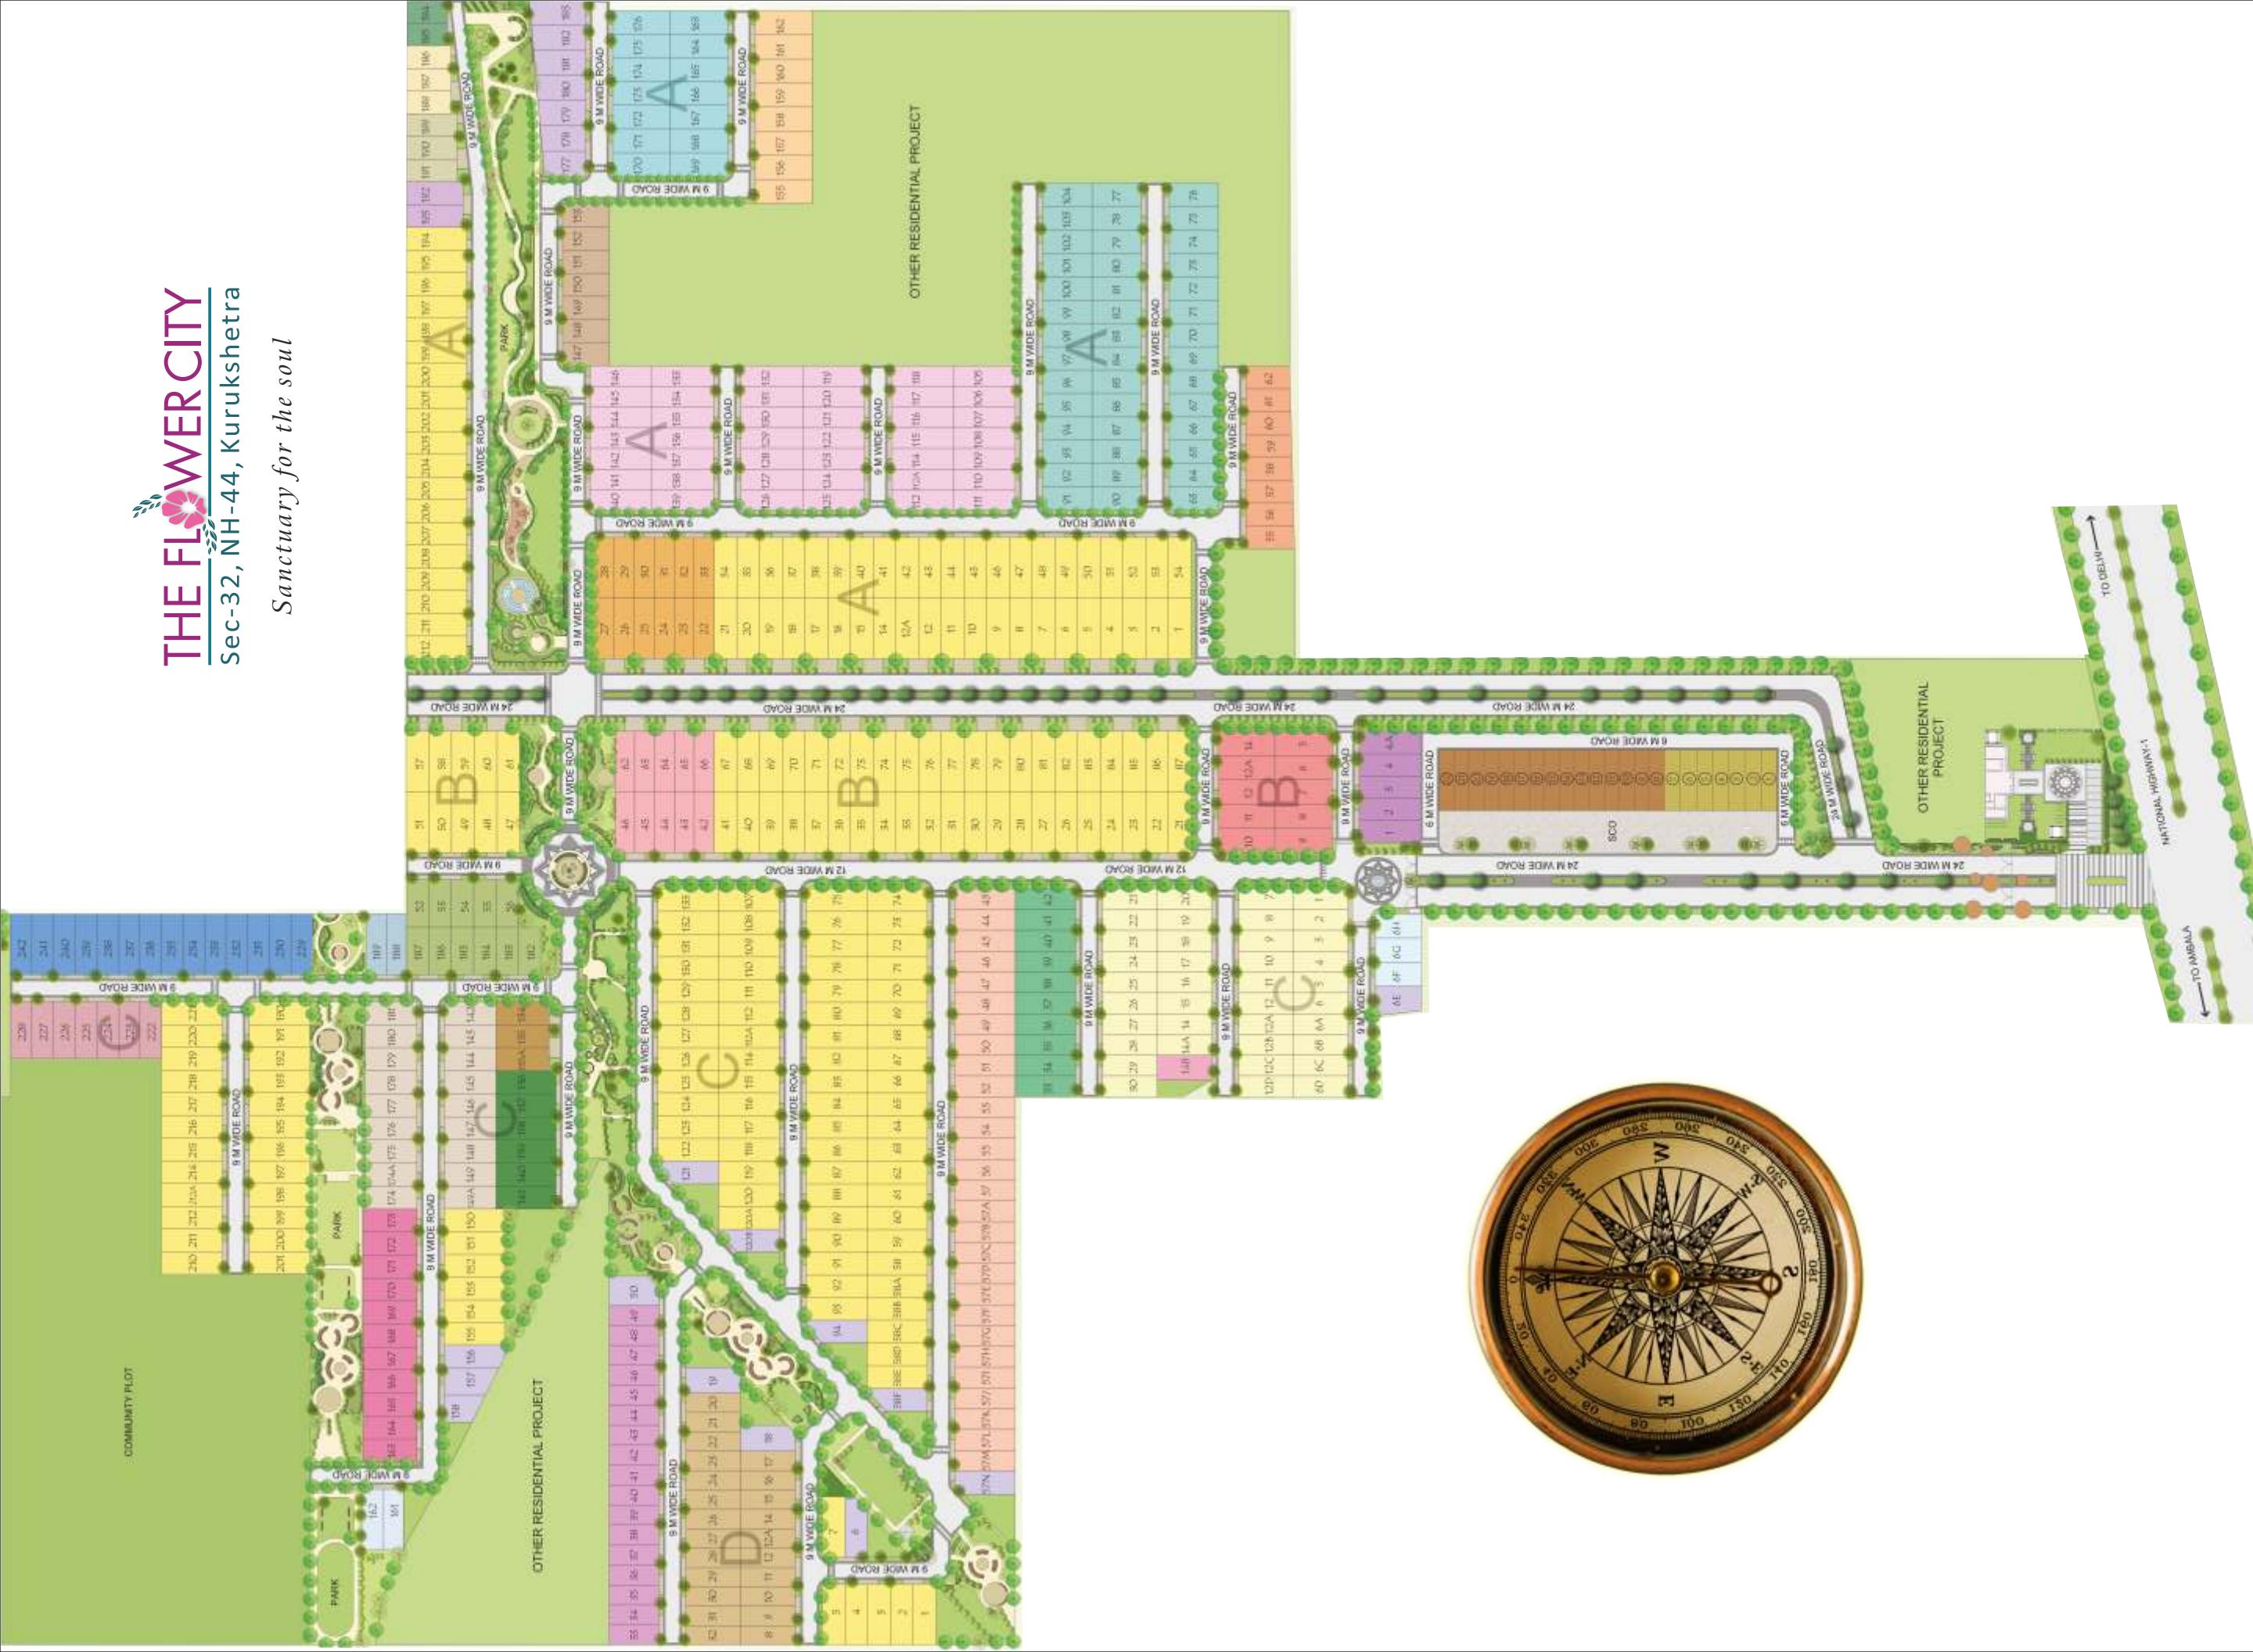

The commercial real estate business will de-densify, with office spaces within walking distance seeing an upsurge, further increasing the demand for satellite offices.

KURUKSHETRA

According to the Puranas, Kurukshetra is a region named after King Kuru, the ancestor of Kauravas and Pandavas in the Kuru kingdom, as depicted in epic Mahabharata. The Kurukshetra War of the Mahabharata is believed to have taken place here. Thaneswar whose urban area is merged with Kurukshetra is a pilgrimage site with many locations attributed to Mahabharata. In the Vedas Kurukshetra is described not as a city but as a region ("kshetra" means "region" in Sanskrit).

The land of Kurukshetra was situated between two rivers—the Sarasvati and the Drishadvati.

PLACES TO SEE

Shakti Peeth-Bhadrakali Mandir

The Shaktipeeth Shri Devikoop Bhadrakali Mandir is one of the most popular pilgrimage destinations in Kurukshetra. According to the scriptures, Devi Bhagwati committed Sati when she was unable to bear the tarnishing of Lord Shiva's name and reputation. A distraught Shiva paced the lengths and breadths of the universe with her dead body. Lord Vishnu decided to chop her dead body into 52 parts with his Sudarshan Chakra to spare Shiva the extended agony. The different parts of her body scattered across the world. The sacred 'Shaktipeeth' sites today are the places where Maa Sati's body parts fell to the earth. It is believed that the right ankle fell at the current location of the Shaktipeeth Shri Devikoop Bhadrakali Mandir in Kurukshetra.

Jyotisar

Jyotisar or the famed birthplace of Gita is the most revered tirtha in Kurukshetra. The Mahabharata battle reportedly began at Jyotisar. Visit this sacred destination for a splendid light and sound show that is put on every evening in both Hindi and English.

Brahma Sarovar Kurukshetra

This stunning and venerated location is one of the most famous places to visit in Kurukshetra. According to legends, Yudhistira constructed a tower in the middle of the Sarovar to celebrate his victory during the Mahabharata. This stunning island also includes a shrine dedicated to Lord Shiva located on its northern banks. The Shiva Linga in this shrine was installed by none other than Lord Brahma himself.

Shri Venkateswara Swamy Tirupati Balaji Temple

The Tirupati Balaji temple dedicated to Lord Vishnu is an newer addition to Kurukshetra.

Gurudwara Mastgarh

Shri Krishna Museum

The Sri Krishna Museum in Kurukshetra is one of the most unique places to visit in Kurukshetra. The museum endeavors to showcase the mystique of Lord Krishna.
